

Having a hard time at school?

The law* says that you and your friends have the right to get extra help at school if you need it.

* This law is called the Additional Support for Learning Act

Want to find out more?

Then check out Enquire's website

www.enquire.org.uk/yp

You'll find:

- More info about your rights
- Podcasts with young people
- Blogs about festivals, competitions, books and short films
- A map of youth clubs near you
- Guides about changing or leaving school, having your say at meetings and getting extra help

